Duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation and Client Declaration

Before you enter into this contract of insurance, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation. You have a similar duty when you ask us to vary or extend the insurance, and when we offer to renew your insurance. This means that you need to take reasonable care to provide honest, accurate and complete answers to our questions. A misrepresentation includes a statement that is false, partially false, or which does not fairly reflect the truth.

When you ask us to vary or extend your insurance or before you renew your insurance, you need to take reasonable care to review any information that we provide to you for your confirmation and to tell us about any changes, if the information is no longer honest, accurate and complete.

For the full version, please refer to the PDS.
